Exhibit Design Certificate Program in Museum Practice

You've got your building, you've got your artifacts, but now what? How should you display them? How should the lighting be done? If you've been asking these questions you should be looking to participate in Exhibit Design.

This one-day workshop will help participants develop knowledge and understanding of how museum exhibitions serve as a means of communication. They will explore the essential elements of an exhibitions policy, and the relevant standards on which the policy should be based. Lighting, labels, and directing visitor traffic will also be discussed.

- Who Should Attend: All museum staff, volunteers, and board members would benefit by learning the essential skills taught in this workshop.
- Date, Location and Time: February 15, 2012, RM of Brokenhead Municipal offices (PR 302 & PTH #44), Beausejour, 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM
- Instructors: David McInnes, Typha Communications
Sherry Dangerfield, SDangerfield Interpretive Planning
- Fee: $90 for member museums, $130 for non-members. Fees include all course materials and lunch. Space is allocated on a first come, first served basis with a limit of 20 participants. Notice of cancellation must be received at least 72 hours prior to the event for a refund. Failure to do so will result in a $20 administration fee.

Registration Deadline: February 8, 2012

PLEASE NOTE: This course will be cancelled if fewer than 10 people have registered and paid for the course by the registration deadline!

Travel Assistance: The Canadian Museums Association offers travel grants of up to $400 to AMM members attending courses. Applications should be submitted to the AMM office three weeks in advance of the course. Application forms are available through the AMM office or on-line at www.museumsmanitoba.com (click on Courses and Seminars on the left sidebar on the main page).
